

AoC Conference success

EDI had a very successful exhibition at the recent AoC Annual Conference, providing advice and guidance to college staff on a range of issues including Functional Skills.

Several sales leads were generated and as sponsors of the awards ceremony in the evening, EDI had a great presence at the event. Gareth Phillips, Director of Sales and Business Strategy, made a speech and presented an award.

View Gareth's interview on AoC TV at www.aoctv.co.uk.

The Student of the Year Award went to an EDI learner at South Nottinghamshire College. Click here to view the article on the college website.